2013 - OUR YEAR OF CELEBRATION

*"The Spirit bade me go, nothing doubting" Acts 11:12
"Whereupon I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision" Acts 26:19*

We are encouraged in Scripture to make positive declarations. Numbers 14:28 'Say unto them, As truly as I live, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you.' "For by the words of thy mouth, thou shall be justified and by the words of thy mouth, thou shall be condemned" Matt 12;37. Job 22:28 says "Thou shall also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways". Let us take authority from the scriptures above and the many others on the subject to declare the New Year 2013 as our year of celebrations! I so stand to declare today that 2013 is a year of celebration for you and your household in Jesus name! I declare that anything that brings sorrow will not come near your dwelling in 2013. I declare that those things that will make you laugh and be happy will come your way. I declare that people will come around you from time to time this new year to celebrate with you. There shall be no gathering around you for crying, pity and sorrow. You will be congratulated again and again in the new year in Jesus name.

I know the past year may have been challenging to you. I know that you may have had experiences last year that troubled you. I urge you to put all that behind you. There shall be no carry-over of anything you don't like from the previous year. I so declare in Jesus name and so shall it be. Isaiah 43:18-20 "Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert. The beast of the field shall honor me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen". Psalms 30:5 "...weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning".

The Advanced Learners English Dictionary says that to celebrate, is to mark a happy day or event with festivities and rejoicing. To celebrate is to enjoy oneself in some way on an occasion. Alleluia! I am excited about 2013 as this prophetic declaration goes forth. I reject every plan of the wicked one. Don't believe the superstition concerning the number 13. That devil is a liar. Join me in claiming the best that God has to offer in the New Year. In fact he promised in Psalms 65:11 'to crown the year with his goodness; and drop fatness on your paths' during the year. Tell me why you will not celebrate when the Lord God is doing this for you?

God loves his children celebrating so much that he gave the church in the wilderness so many festivals to celebrate. They moved from one celebration to another. And when we get to heaven it will be unending celebration. How else will you define celebration when he promised you abundant life which is a foretaste of life in heaven? Again I say that you will move from one celebration to another.

Someone will say to me that these are the last days and that we can't expect to celebrate on this side of eternity. As true as that sounds, I recall the Lord Jesus say to us in John 16:33 "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world'. He has conquered for us and we only need to insist on the victory that he won for us on Calvary's cross. In the midst of the difficulties of the times in which we live, God will keep his children. It reminds me of the difference between Israel and Egypt in the days when God sent Moses to set his people free. Exodus 11:7 ' But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the LORD doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel'.

God blesses his children with peace, joy, love etc Indeed Galatians 5:22-23 says "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law". There is no room for those things that upset and create unhappiness. It is a new year. Face it with faith and great expectation believing God for the very best. The prophetic word has been spoken over you, it is now your duty to appropriate the word into your life. 2 Chronicles 20:20 "...Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper". Happy new year!

RECENT EVENTS AT THE CHURCH OF THE ANOINTING

2012 CHRISTMAS CAROL NITE – FESTIVAL OF NINE LESSONS & CAROLS

Wednesday December 19 will remain evergreen in our memories in this ministry as Rev Francis Waive joined the Anointed Singers for the first time in presenting the Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols. Mrs Ifeoma Nwokocha & co had given the church hall the Christmas look with beautiful decorations and it was the best

Carol Nite ever. Attendance was good and the presence of God was strong. The singing was the best part as a piece of musical drama, solos and a duet were included. Famous carols were rendered melodiously and a cake was presented and publicly cut and enjoyed by all. The round-up songs “long time ago in Bethlehem & I wanna wish you a merry Christmas” threw the entire congregation into a festive mode and the joy was infectious. Brethren freely discussed the event as they returned home. Some thought Bro Timothy Meledu's saxophone rendition of Silent Night was the highlight, others felt Bro Isaac's demonstration and song of 'the drummer boy' was the bomb. Majority however concurred that seeing Rev Waive moderate the event and sing in all the carols and even soloing some songs was the thrill. FRESHOIL has been reliably informed that 2013 edition comes up on Sunday afternoon 22 December. Many congratulations to the Anointing Singers and our own GO!

ANOINTED SINGERS AFRICAN PRAISE DAY

Sunday 2nd December was the 2012 African Praise Day put together by the Anointed Singers. It was pretty seeing the choir members all gorgeously dressed in native African attire of the many tribes of our country Nigeria. All the songs rendered were in different languages and the attires worn matched the songs. There was also a drama presentation on the need for young people to be able to speak their mother tongue fluently. The high point was the calling of phone re-charge card numbers in the various languages and waiting to see if people will be able to recognize the numerals in their own tribal language. While some recharge cards were not worn others were quickly and freely own. The Anointed Singers promise to do this annual event earlier next year.

NATIVE AIR ALL-NIGHT SPECIAL - 30TH NOVEMBER 2012

It was the very first event put together by the Native Air Choir of the Church of the Anointing and it lived up to its billing. Several native Air Choirs, musicians and Instrumentalists from across Warri and even Bayelsa State graced the occasion and ministered. Starting at exactly 11pm there was no sign of been tired until 5am the next morning when the program was formally closed. Bro Slyvanus Obi gave the word which was fresh and strong. The prayers were effectual and effective. And the singing was superb. How we bless the Lord that we enjoyed his presence that night! You would think that the number you just heard is the best but wait for the next! Everyone was on his or her feet all through the duration of the event. FRESHOIL congratulates our Native Air and says that we expect many more of such.

YOUTH PICNIC 2012

October 1st every year is always a day of Picnic for our Anointed Youth Fellowship (AYF). But the 2012 edition was special in many ways. First it was the choice of venue – the serene Ibru Centre Agbarha-Otor! It was also the first Picnic organized by the Bro Wilson Adjija led Executive. Activities included the normal games like swimming, football, tennis, etc But the novel addition was the MISS AYF competition. FRESHOIL is assured that the event was done in an all godly way and nothing unworthy of our calling to holiness was seen. Miss Promise Irerih emerged winner while Miss Eloho Obi was runner-up. Miss Verita David won the third place. All winners went home with handsome prizes. Another new dimension was the motivational talk by Frank Waive. Well over a hundred participants from within and outside the church participated. Reports indicate that everyone who attended really enjoyed it. AYF, more grease to your elbow! The new AYF leaders include the following -

Wilson Adjija	President
Ejoro Jitokun	Deputy President
Helen Opopgen	Secretary
Nkechi Onyewuenyi	Fin Sec

WOMEN EXCO RE-INVIGORATED & HOLDS WOMEN CONVENTION

FreshOil is glad to report the re-invigoration of the Women Exco during the period under review. The new women Exco has since swung into action with the holding of WOMEN CONVENTION 2012 with the theme WHEN THE RIGHTEOUS CRY. The Keynote Speaker was the very articulate Rev Mrs Babalola who did justice to the subject and got our women praying. FreshOil is pleased with the attendance of the church women and their invitees. This is wishing the new Women Exco a very fulfilling tenure. The Exco that emerged has the following –

Rev Mrs Rita Waive	President
Dcns Florence Atanomeyovwi	Deputy President
Mrs Christy Obi	Secretary/ Bible Sec
Mrs Rukwwe Ijomone	Fin Sec
Mrs Rita Aluya	Prayer Sec
Pastor Theo Obanogun	Pastoral Adviser
